

Jessica Luxembourg
Associate

jessica.luxembourg@saffronchase.com

Jessica Luxembourg is highly skilled in PR and communications, both through her experience working on international client accounts for a trans-Atlantic PR and global communications agency and for multinational law firms, and through her strong track record as a journalist. She is particularly experienced in covering the biotechnology, corporate (including corporate responsibility), education and public sector, EU and regulatory, legal, pharmaceutical, professional services and TMT areas.

She is also highly experienced in researching the international capital markets and in covering corporate developments in the Asia Pacific and EMEA regions. She has native standard French, solid experience working with US-based clients, and superb written and oral communications skills.