

Manoj Ladwa
Director

manoj.ladwa@saffronchase.com

Manoj Ladwa is a co-founder and Director of Saffron Chase. He is a recognised expert on foreign direct investments in India. He is an accomplished media commentator and is frequently invited to speak at conferences and seminars. Manoj has authored over 100 articles and publications on related subjects.

Manoj is also a transactional lawyer and advises clients on their strategies. Following stints in Mumbai and New York, Manoj returned to London to establish MLS Chase LLP, a leading law firm associated with Saffron Chase.

In 2003, he established the London office of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce, and served as its head for three years. Manoj served on various trade promotion committees, including those of UK Trade & Investment and the London Chamber of Commerce.

Manoj is a graduate of the London School of Economics. He is dual qualified as an English solicitor and Indian advocate.